

April 8, 2009

Teragren receives certification for bamboo, veneer

Teragren now offers Indoor Air Advantage-certified bamboo products, having been certified through Scientific Certification Systems.

The certification stipulates limits for indoor air emissions and applies to all unfinished traditional bamboo panels and unfinished 1/8-inch traditional bamboo veneer (vertical and flat grains) manufactured using the company's no added formaldehyde adhesive.

Teragren is pursuing SCS-certification for its entire product line.