Teragren, a maker of bamboo flooring, panels and veneer, on Wednesday said it has signed an agreement with T&A Supply to provide bamboo flooring products to T&A's Northwest retailers.

T&A is a floor covering distributor with 19 branches that supply more than 6,600 floor covering retailers in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Alaska.

"This agreement significantly bolsters our presence in the Northwest and, as a result, we expect our distribution network to double in the coming year to include more than 500 retailers," said Teragren President and CEO David Knight in a statement.

Bainbridge Island-based Teragren has seven bamboo flooring product lines.
