

August 26, 2009

---

Teragren expands distribution, sales and marketing team

[Bainbridge Island, Wash.] Teragren announced that it named John Austin to the post of vice president, flooring division and Mike Boshart to the position of vice president of marketing. In his new role, Austin will be working closely with Teragren's regional representatives, flooring distributors and marketing team to drive sales worldwide, while Boshart will be responsible for key elements of Teragren's domestic and international marketing including new product marketing, positioning and merchandising.

The company also secured four new distribution agreements in the United States. The Wurth Wood Group, CPS/Garten Corporation, McKillican International and Darant Distributing Corporation will now offer select products from Teragren's lines of bamboo flooring, countertops, panels and veneer through their respective distribution networks.